

Mailock vs. Egress Email Encryption: Fact Sheet

Outbound email security	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• End-to-end AES 256-bit email encryption</li> <li>• Limited recipient authentication (Q&amp;A or Egress account sign-in)</li> <li>• 'Black box' approach to data loss prevention prompts (machine learning)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• End-to-end AES 256-bit email encryption</li> <li>• Flexible recipient authentication (Q&amp;A, SMS, Unipass ID)</li> <li>• 'Clear box' approach to data loss prevention prompts (trigger words)</li> </ul>
User interface and experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unregistered recipients must register to read</li> <li>• Configurable privileges (e.g. restrict forwarding or downloading)</li> <li>• 25 credits/month for free users (1 credit = 1 recipient)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unregistered recipients can read without signing up</li> <li>• Simple access privileges (i.e., works like a normal email)</li> <li>• 5 send credits/month for free users (1 credit = 1 send)</li> </ul>
Integrations and ecosystem	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Integrates with Microsoft Outlook and 365 for desktop functionality</li> <li>• No single-sign-on (SSO) available - users must log in with Egress credentials</li> <li>• Multi-product ecosystem including 296 outbound and inbound email and data security products</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Integrates with Microsoft Outlook and 365 for desktop functionality</li> <li>• Integrates with Unipass ID single-sign-on (SSO) for financial services users</li> <li>• Tri-product ecosystem built around a specialisation in secure communications - Mailock is the flagship</li> </ul>
Cost and customer support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• User or volume-based pricing, negotiable at scale - guide cost is £90/user/year</li> <li>• Combined support desk for its 296 security tools</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• User or volume-based pricing, negotiable at scale - guide cost is £84/user/year</li> <li>• Dedicated support desk for Mailock secure email</li> </ul>